

You should spend about 40 minutes on this task:

In many schools nowadays students are being encouraged to use the internet to help them complete their homework.

Why is this happening?

Is the internet a reliable source of information for academic study?

Give reasons for your answers and include any relevant examples from your own knowledge or experience.

Write at least 250 words.