

You should spend about 40 minutes on this task.

Write about the following topic:

In order to ensure fairness, primary and secondary education should be free and provided for by governments. Private schools should not be allowed to exist.

To what extent do you agree or disagree?

Give reasons for your answers and include any relevant examples from your own knowledge or experience.

Write at least 250 words.